

SCMP 401: First Presentation Content Rubric

Presentation defines value and interest of project results

Presentation identifies the resources (software, hardware, personnel) needed to complete project

Presentation identifies the stakeholders in the project

Presentation convinces audience of feasibility of project

Presentation contains realistic timeline for completion of project

Presentation identifies the major risks (barriers to completion) to the project and the planned actions to address the risks

Presentation identifies the new skills or knowledge that are needed to complete the project

Presentation prioritizes project objectives by importance and expected effort required

Presentation describes the project outcomes in as much detail as can be foreseen